COMMAND OVERSIGHT

Commanders will brief information assurance (IA) compliance when they brief their commanders on the status of activities (for example, quarterly training briefings, quarterly review and analysis). The briefing will give IA compliance status as yes (in compliance) or no (not in compliance); or as red (not in compliance), amber (partially in compliance), or green (in compliance). Briefing slides will have the following bullets:

► Automated Information System (AIS) Servers Are Registered. AIS servers are registered with the Regional Computer Emergency Response Team, Europe (RCERT-E). Server information must have been updated within the last 90 days.

► Key AIS Persons Are Licensed. System administrators (including persons with elevated system privileges), network managers, and system and network security oversight personnel (for example, information systems security manager, information systems security officer) meet minimum training and licensing requirements.

► Security Standards Are Met. Systems and networks meet the following minimum security standards:

◆ Anti-Virus Is Installed. Current anti-virus software must be installed.

◆ Password Policy Is Enforced. Password policy, including changes to policy, must be followed and enforced.

◆ Software Is Configured. Software must be configured according to configuration standards on the RCERT-E website at <https://www.rcerte.5sigcmd.army.mil>.

Connections to the USAREUR Nonsecure Internet Protocol Router Network (NIPRNET) and the Secret Internet Protocol Router Network (SIPRNET) must be registered with the RCERT-E before use.

Registration is completed electronically on the RCERT-E website.

INFORMATION ASSURANCE EMERGENCY AND INCIDENT PROCEDURES

A threat to any one networked computer anywhere in DOD is a threat to DOD computer systems worldwide. In response to this type of threat, HQDA has instituted a 4-hour reporting requirement for IA emergencies. The standing operating procedures (SOPs) of the offices involved provide specific reporting procedures.

► An IA emergency is an ongoing security vulnerability that has the potential for major damage to data or major degradation of automation services that would adversely affect the USAREUR warfighting mission. An IA emergency requires USAREUR and HQDA notification within 4 hours.

◆ Actual or suspected intrusions in USAREUR and significant computer-network vulnerabilities are reported to the Watch Officer, Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff, Operations, HQ USAREUR/7A. The Watch Officer will notify specific USAREUR commanders by telephone and follow up with an e-mail executive summary. The officer will follow procedures in the Watch Officer SOP.

◆ When a situation has the potential for command-wide information or system damage, the Information Assurance Program Manager, USAREUR, may declare an IA emergency alert, code word DRAGON LIGHTNING. DRAGON LIGHTNING alerts are processed by the USAREUR Emergency Action Center for rapid commandwide notification. Notification will be by telephone (conference call) and follow-up flash message.

► An IA incident is an ongoing security vulnerability that does not meet the criteria of an IA emergency but requires prompt correction. An IA incident normally will be limited to duty-hour and duty-day notification.

► Routine information (for example, software-vulnerability notices, new viruses, suspicious Internet protocol addresses) will be reported daily during the workweek in the Current RCERT-E Operations Activity Report. The reporting cutoff time is 1700 Central European Time (CET). The incidents must be reported to the Watch Officer by 1800 CET.
